|  | Be ruthless! Go through each room and decide what to get rid of   | Make hotel and airline reservations if you need them  |
|--|---|---|
|  | Start planning a yard sale or contact your local charities  | ☐ Get children's school records   |
|  | Find out whether your employer is paying for any moving expenses  | Find a cleaning service that will do a final cleaning of your home  |
|  | Contact moving companies for estimates and information  | Transfer or close bank accounts at previous location  |
|  | Make an inventory of everything to be moved   | Remove all jewelry and other valuables to asafety deposit box or other safe place toprevent loss during the move. |
|  | Open a bank account in your new location and change currency if necessary   | Check into storage options for those itemsyou cannot move immediately and may needto store temporarily            |
|  | <ul> <li>Cancel all newspapers and services atyour previous location</li> </ul>  | Make back-up copies of important files on your computer before packing it up  |
|  | Contact a real estate agent in your newlocation so they can begin searching foryour new home or rental property   | Separate cartons and luggage you need for personal travel   |
|  | Cancel or transfer mobile and telephone numbers   | Pack a special box with essentials you'll needfor the first few days (Make sure this box ismarked "Do not move")  |
|  | <ul> <li>Make sure your passport is valid</li> <li>Collect everything you have loaned out and return everything you have borrowed</li> <li>Start pulling together medical and dental records</li> </ul> | ☐ If you have children or pets, arrange for   |
|  |   | someone to look after them during the move  |
|  |   | Pack cleaning materials and tools separately  |
|  |   | Arrange for your mail to be forwarded   |
|  | Schedule disconnection of utilities at your old home and connection at your new one   | Make a final check of the entire house(basement, closets, shelves, every room)  |
